PREFACE

Since 1912, when Who's Who in the Theatre first appeared, the work involved in its preparation has increased more than threefold. It would, therefore, be foolhardy to claim that mistakes cannot have been made in the preparation of this Eleventh Edition. Every effort has been made, however, to keep possible errors down to a minimum, and it is hoped that past standards of accuracy have been maintained in the present volume.

Proofs have been forwarded for correction to all for whom an address could be found and it is gratifying to record that more than 75 per cent of these were duly returned.

Printing, paper and binding difficulties have prevented the biographical record from being extended beyond December, 1950, although a few later references have been made in some instances. Nearly 400 new biographies, English and American, have been incorporated. The Synopsis of London Playbills covers major productions from July, 1946 to the end of May, 1951. The Obituary and the List of Wills extend to July, 1951. All other records have been revised and corrected to December, 1950.

An innovation in the present edition has been made with the listing of Theatrical Auto-biographies, Biographies, Recollections, Reminiscences and volumes of Collective Biography, from the eighteenth century to date. To the best of my knowledge, this is the first time that such a list has been compiled, and it will, I trust, prove a welcome source of reference to all those interested in this particular field of theatrical literature.

The removal of names from the Biographical Section by reason of death is always an unhappy task, and since 1946 the toll has indeed been relentless in the ranks of the profession. This may best be realized when it is stated that, among more than 200 names so removed are those of James Agate, Viola Allen, John Ansell, Sara Allgood, Dame Lilian Braithwaite, Davy Burnaby, Wm. A. Brady, Nina Boucicault, Earl Carroll, Edith Craig, Frank Cellier, Jacques Copeau, Jane Cowl, Dudley Digges, Alfred Drayton, Franklyn Dyall, Gertrude Elliott, C. V. France, Sid Field, George Graves, Sir Seymour Hicks, Willie Howard, Walter Huston, Al Jolson, Matheson Lang, Leon M. Lion, Franz Lehar, Sir Harry Lauder, Pauline Lord, Edna May, Grace Moore, Maurice Maeterlinck, Julia Marlowe, Vaslav Nijinsky, Brock Pemberton, Sir C. Aubrey Smith, Firth Shephard, Bernard Shaw, Richard Tauber, Laurette Taylor, Dame Irene Vanbrugh, Nellie Wallace, Tom Walls, Ben Webster, and Dame May Whitty.

During the present year the list has been further increased by the passing, among others, of Marie Ault, W. H. Berry, Fannie Brice, James Bridie, Sir Charles ("C. B.") Cochran, Ralph Forbes, James Harcourt, Horace Hodges, H. R. Lenormand, Cyril Maude, Olga Nethersole, Ivor Novello, Edward Rigby, David Warfield, Dwight Dere Wiman and Al. Woods. These names will still be found among the biographies, with the date of death appended.

In addition, the names of many persons who have made no appearance for some years have been removed from the Biographical Section, and transferred to the appropriate index which precedes it.

It now only remains for me to acknowledge the invaluable assistance I have received from my son John, in bringing standing biographies up to date and in reading proofs; from my former secretary, Mabel Billings, and my present secretary, Doris Francis in proof-reading, and from Mr. Louis M. Simon, the Secretary of Actors' Equity Association of America.

Healthy, lustrous hair for every member of the family!

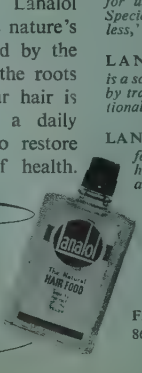
Lanalol contains Nature's hair food—promotes strong natural growth.

Dull, thin, brittle or "lifeless" hair indicates that the glands of the scalp are inactive and that insufficient food is reaching the hair roots. Lanalol Hair Food corrects this because it contains nature's own hair food in a form readily absorbed by the scalp and, by its tonic action, stimulates the roots to natural, healthy vitality. Whether your hair is dry and brittle or greasy and lifeless, a daily dressing with Lanalol is all you need to restore vigorous growth and the soft lustre of health.

Lanalol HAIR FOOD

GOES TO THE ROOT OF THE TROUBLE



LANALOL HAIR FOOD No. 1
(Oily) is specially prepared for use on dry hair—it contains the nature hair foods combined with oil essential to hair growth.

LANALOL HAIR FOOD No. 2
(Non-greasy) is a stimulating spirit preparation, astringent and suitable for use on naturally greasy hair. Specially recommended for "lifeless," falling hair.

LANALOL SOLIDIFIED
is a solid brilliantine widely favoured by travellers and those with exceptionally unruly hair.

LANALOL HAIR CREAM
for those who prefer the hair-dressing in the form of an easy-flowing cream.

LANALOL SOAP SHAMPOO
(Red Label). A liquid soap de luxe
